New joint brochure

Osborn and Dronco present topseller

(Burgwald/Wunsiedel). Osborn and Dronco have put their topselling items in a joint brochure. The Dronco portfolio consists of cutting and grinding discs, flap and polishing discs, Osborn presents handbrushes as well as the most commonly used cup-, end- and wheelbrushes for cleaning, structuring, descaling and paint stripping for the use on angle grinders, drilling machines, high-speed and stationary machines.

The brochure is an excerpt of the companies' comprehensive portfolios. Especially for interested people for who the single catalogs offer too much choices, the new brochure offers an easy entry into both product lines. The brochure can be downloaded via the QR-Code in this document or by the following link:
